An open letter of Appreciation....

Through Ntroduction's service, we were able to meet decision makers at small and mid-size company executives including CIO, Directors and Managers.

Through Ntroduction's service, we were able to meet decision makers at small and mid-size company executives including CIO, Directors and Managers.

Although we are a small boutique service, we were treated by our clients very reasonable and fair and we credit this to Ntroduction's service "Introductions to the deserved". We are extremely happy that this service even exists and the lack of such service, it will be hard for boutique consulting companies like ours to even participate in RFI/RFP processes.

We are also using Ntroduction to hire the "best of the breed" talent out there through introductions. We wish Ntroduction all the success in this service.

With heartfelt Congratulations,
